MY PROFILE

I'm a Business Delivery Leader with over 15 years' experience across public and private sectors—including finance, insurance, telco, government, and corporate environments. I thrive in transformation programs and love helping businesses deliver meaningful change through structured, value-driven execution.

I'm certified in project management, agile and human-centered design, and I bring a mix of contemporary and traditional delivery methods to the table. I'm especially passionate about business-led initiatives enabled by technology, and I approach every challenge with a strong dose of curiosity, pragmatism, and customer focus.

I'm open to new client and contract opportunities that make the most of my delivery capability and strategic thinking. I hold an AGSVA Baseline Security Clearance, and believe in the Right person for the Right seat.
